

Acknowledgement of utilizing research findings or creative works
Graduate School Burapha University

.....
Title of the study:

.....
Name of the researcher:

Expected date of completion of the study:

The study purpose(s)

I would like to utilize

From (Name of Dissertation/ Thesis/ IS or Publication)

..... Year.....

Name of the first author/ creator

Under supervision of (Name of major advisor).....

Faculty/ College of Burapha University

Types of utilize the research findings or creative works (Can answer more than 1 item)

- Public Policy
- commercial community and setting

Expected outcomes from utilizing the research findings or creative works:

.....
.....
.....

And hereby, certify that (Organization' name)

Has applied the research to practical use and can lead to more effective development signed

(.....)

Position

Date

Pleas stamp your organization here**

Utilizing research findings or creative works

Utilizing research findings or creative works refers to research or creative work utilized for the purposes outlined in the research proposal. It is expected that the research output will be able to lead to solving the problem concrete. It also could guide to have creativity in application to the target audience with clear evidence of its use until it can clearly benefit according to the purpose. The utilization should be certified by the relevant authorities with empirical evidence. When the research project has been completed, it should be also certified by outside agency in according to the research action plan specified in the project.

Types of utilize the research findings or creative works:

1. Commercial utilization: It is to bring innovation, invention and technology to commercial production. To create added value and reduce production costs including creating careers and options for agricultural entrepreneurs and professionals
2. Policy utilization: It is the application of knowledge to be used in the policy-making process. To achieve the objectives corresponds to problems and needs, it could be a national policy at regional level, provincial, local, or agency levels.
3. Public utilization: It is the application of research products, inventions and innovations to create knowledge and understanding, which will lead to changing ways of thinking and behavior in order to increase the quality of life of the people. Build a quality society and promote environmental quality
4. Community and setting utilization: It is the implementation of processes, methods, knowledge and changes resulting from research and development of local communities and society.

The agency involved in certifying the use of research or creative work is defined as an organization or communities outside of higher education institutions, which utilizing research findings or creative works of higher education institutions with empirical evidence.