The Graduate School established relationships and strengthened corporate culture

On December 24, 2024, the Graduate School of Burapha University hosted a year-end celebration to welcome the New Year 2025. The event was part of the seminar program aimed at fostering bonds and strengthening the organizational culture of the Graduate School. During the event, the "Employee of the Year 2024" award was presented to Mr. Pongsathorn Katasila, an academic officer recognized for embodying the organization's core value of "Service Mind." Additionally, the Graduate School donated clothing and essential items to the "Leftover-Request Project" under the Bannok Kamin Foundation. These contributions will be transformed into scholarships for underprivileged children supported by the foundation and across the country.
